AGAIN UPSETS THE TALENT.

Race Won by Senator P. H. McCarren's Potente at 10 to 1-Andy Williams Defeats Grand Opera in the Seabreeze Stakes-Sadducee Is Badly Beaten.

Frank Farrell's Bonnibert was guilty of another form reversal at Gravesend yes-terday, thousands of dollars placed upon him by the talent being burned up as a re-sult. Last Tuesday Bonnibert, a 1 to 3 favorite, was beaten by the two-year-old colt Mackey Dwyer, owned by Senator P. H. McCarren, in a race at a mile and a sixteenth. On Friday Bonnibert, carrying six pounds less, outclassed his company and won easily at the same distance. In the second race yesterday, a handicap for all ages at a mile and a furlons, Bonnibert, with 123 pounds, and a hot favorite at 8 to 5, finished third. the winner being Senator McCarren's Potente, a 10 to 1 shot, who led all the way and won cleverly by three lengths, with Daly finishing a head before Farrell's four-year-old, who took third money from Carbuncle by a nose. When Starter Pettingill sent the field away take hold of Bonnibert when, in the estimation of all shrewd horsemen, he should have gone out in front with a heart-breaking pace. There was no pace at all, for that matter, in the early part of the contest, Potente running easily in front, with Daly and Belle of Troy in close attendance. Martin was apparently shut in going up the back stretch, but he got clear in the stretch and then put Bonnibert under the whip. But the sen of Albert-Bonnie Ola did not show his usual speed and had a hard struggle to finish in the money. The time was 1:53 3-5. hish in the money. The time was 1:53 3-5, he last half of the race being run at a fast finish in the money. The time was 103 3-9, the last half of the race being run at a fast chip.

The feature of the card was the Seabreeze Selling Stakes for three-year-olds at a mile and a sixteenth, with the field reduced to four starters. "Pittsburg Phil's" Grand Opera, with Shaw up, was the favorite, with Andy Williams, who ran in the colors of Alexander Shields, and O. L. Richard's Rossignol played well to beat the Wagner colt. Shaw took Grand Opera out in front, but at the half nule Andy Williams, who was under a constant drive, from Odon, went up to him easily. Together they raced as a team to the head of the stretch, where Odom, still working with hand and heel, drew away with Andy Williams, who won ridden out to the wire by three lengths in the fast time of 1.47 2-5, Grand Opera finishing three lengths before Rossignol, who was poorly ridden throughout by Martin, the boy who handled Bonnibert in the previous event.

Lawrence Waterbury's Sadducee, an oddson favorite, finished far back in the fifth event, at about six furlongs, having been stood on his head by the winner, Mabel Winn, an 8 to 1 shot, who passed the judges two lengths to the good in 110 2-5. Stuye, well managed by Martin, got the place by three lengths from Carroll D., 100 to 1, who was a head before Templeton.

PLANS FOR CUP DEFENDER Already Prepared-E. D. Morgan Will Not

Take Charge of New Boat. NEWPORT, Sept 22 -It was learned to-day from a prominent yachtsman that plans have been prepared by the Herreshoffs for the new Cup defender, and that the order will be placed as soon as the challenge is received from Sir Thomas Lipton. It will also be learned with regret that Edwin D. Morgan will not be able to devote any time to yachting next season. He was approached to-day on the subject and said that owing to private business he would not be able to take charge of a Cup would not be able to take charge of a Cup boat next season, and he was unable to state whom he thought likely to have charge of the new boat. It is now understood that the Columbia will not be in commission next summer, but that the Constitution will be used for a trial horse and it is understood that she will be in charge of W. B. Duncan, Jr. The new boat will be launched early in the year, and ample time will be given to tune her up.

Death of John Dale, England's Oldest Huntsman.

John Dale, who was the oldest huntsman in England and one of the most remarkable sporting characters of the last century, died about a fortnight ago at his home. Croton, Wiltshire. He was with the Duke of Beaufort's hounds for the greater part of his life, and was 85 years of age. Dale's first job as whipper-in was with Lord Kintore in 1836 and on his way to Keith Hall he saw Mundig win the Derby of that year. Incidentally, he hunted for Lord Glasgow, Capt. Tate, Lord Radner and with the Old Berkshires. As a judge of horses and breeder of hounds he was the keenest of the keen. He was a sportsman of the type which is becoming rare in the British Isles. No day was too long or journey too far if there was sport at the end of it. To the last his "Yoho" would ring out as clear as when half a century before he pulled the fox down Avon braes. John Dale, who was the oldest huntsman Offer for Gus Ruhlin to Meet Kid Carter at Philadelphia.

Billy Madden is just now considering a six-round bout between his big charge, Gus Ruhlin, and Kid Carter of Brooklyn, who was knocked out by Tommy Ryan at Fort Erie recently. The Penn Art Club of Philadelphia wants a match between these men and is ready to hold the scrap some time next month. Madden says that he is only too willing to go on with the engagement, provided he gets a guaranteed purse and is allowed expenses. The sports are of the opinion that such a meeting would be very interesting. As Carter is a slugger pure and simple, the tilt would be spirited, for Ruhlin can do a bit of this kind of gruelling in a pinch. And with his victory over Tom Sharkey in England fresh in the mind of the patrons of the game, the mil, would be an attraction.

UNTEROCK, 100 TO 1, WINS IN THE LAST STRIDE.

Carroll D., Also 100 to 1. Finishes Third -Bookmakers Fill Their Satchels -Selling Race War Continues-Gossip of the Turf Gleaned at the Track.

While the betting on the Gravesend races vesterday was comparatively light, the bookmakers had far and away the better of the argument with the public, as the only winning favorite was W. C. Whitney's Slipthrift, in the closing event. Long shots held high carnival. The third race was won by Un-terock, a chestnut filly by Hamburg-Petticoat, who was quoted at 100 to 1 all over the ring. The filly is owned by Miles Finlen. the copper millionaire, who named her appropriately Unterock because that is the dam. The fact that she was sired by Hamburg made numerous players back her with small bets, one of the best winners being a well-known tipster who cashed a wager $8,000. Another 100 to 1 shot, W. C. Daly's Carroll D., finished third in the fifth race, beating Templeton, also quoted at 100 to 1 by a short head. Other horses to get inside of the money at big odds were Potente. 10 to 1; Mabel Winn, 8 to 1; Durazzo, 25 to 1; Boutonniere, 8 to 1; Earl of Warwick, 10 to 1, and Stuyve, 8 to 1. Only twice before this season have horses at 100 to 1 or more won on local tracks. Francis J. Lantry's Dr. Saylor at 100 to 1 and D. Snow's Captain Gaston, who was at one time 200 to 1, got home in front. Last year Hengist, 100 to 1, won, together with Dactyl, at the same odds, but the latter was disqualified for fouling. Charley White, the well-known boxing referee, had a good bet on Duckoy, 100 to 1. in the fifth race yesterday, and though the Brutus gelding did not materialize White said that he would continue to back him in races to come.

When Unterock passed into the lead in the last itump a pale-faced little woman in the grand stand uttered a shrick, threw her umbrella away and sank down, gasping for breath.

"I got it!" she cried, as other women looked at her in amazement. "I got it! But it was only a dollar!"

The messenger who had taken her bet came up presently mopping the cold perspiration from his forehead. He counted out $100 with an expression on his face as if he was undergoing a severe surgical operation. Police Captain George McClusky, who has just returned from his vacation spent in British Columbia, was a visitor at the track. Tammany was represented by John B. Sexton, John W. Keller, Patrick Keenan, Timothy D. Sullivan, Battery Dan, Finn and others. Maurice Daly, the billiard player, was there, too, together with Franz Ebert, the Liliputian, who usually makes himself at home, even in the judges stand.

A number of Big Bill Devery's former associates in the police department and some of his political lieutenants were in conspicuous places, but the chief was again absent. Devery used to be a daily visitor at the track, but his friends say that he is too busy these days to spare the time.

In the third ruce Redfern, who rode Sweet Alice, the favorite, lodged a protest of foul against Unterock, the winner. The stewards after examining Michaels and Boisen, made no change in the original placing of the horses.

Andy Williams created a new record for the Seabreeze Stakes. He ran the distance, a mile and a sixteenth, in 1472-5, the best previous time being 148, made by Ethics last year, when the event was first run.

Scratches were numerous yesterday, though the track and weather conditions were favorable. In all forty-four horses were withdrawn, eleven from the first race, two from the second, thurteen from the third, five from the fourth, nine from the fifth and four from the sixth.

Cochran rode two winners, Potente and Slipthrift, and finished third with Boutonnière, quite a good day's work for this boy.

L. V. Bell has decided to retire Alcedo, the Suburban Handicap winner of last year, to the stud at the end of this season. Alcedo was severely injured in the Brooklyn Handicap and Trainer McCormick has been unable to get him into his old form since then. Mr. Bell bought Alcedo a year ago last fall from Pat Dunne for $10,000.

It is said that Tommy Burns, the lockey whose license to ride on Eastern tracks was recently revoked because of constant misconduct at the post, has received an offer of $20,000 a year in salary, with expenses extra, to ride in Austria next season. Burn's contract with W. C. Whitney expires at the end of this year.

NO "PRIZEFIGHT" FOR FORT ERIE Herman's Nice Distinction in Refusing to Bid for McGovern-Corbett Bout. BUFFALO, Sept. 22.-Jack Herman, manager of the International A. C. of Fort Erie, Ont., to-day made a statement that under no condition will Corbett and McGovern box at Fort Erie, as has been stated. Herman gives Fort Erie, as has been stated. Herman gives his reason for not wanting the contest by sayin g that the authorities in two different States have refused to allow the bout to come off because the boxers would be engaged in a prizefight. Prizefighting is illegal under the laws of Canada, boxing is not. If Corbett and McGovern boxed at his clubhouse in Fort Erie he says all future bouts would be stopped, because they would then be termed prizefights, while the present bouts are boxing contests for points. Herman has refused to bid for the fight.

Joe Davis said yesterday he had been notified that the Bankers and Brokers council would enter a team in the New York Royal Arcanum League tournament, which completes the list of thirty councils.

Darrell, Church, Huber, Knauf and Davis are the five players which will represent the Lafayettes in the Harlem League tournament, the same team as last reason, excepting Church. The officers of the Lafayette Club recently elected are: J. Blake, president; J. Huber, vice-president; B. Bernstein, secretary; J. Davis, treasurer; J. Darrell, captain; F. Dieckman, assistant captain. The Harlem Circle alleys have been engaged for Monday nights, beginning Oct. 6.

Although still a member of the Cyclone Club, C. Boettjer refuses to play with the tam in tournament games. The Columbian League five will be Johansmeyer, LeBeau, Schoales, Setzer and A. Boettjer. The last named player will be replaced by Miller in the Harlem lengue. At a recent meeting F. W. Prior, Jr., was elected president; George Setzer, vice-president; Dr. C. W. LeBeau, secretary and T. NEARLY THIRTY CANDIDATES RE-

Spirited Practice for the First Time This Season on South Field-Harvard Squads in a Scrimmage Almost Real Football at Old Nassau-Work at Yale.

Almost thirty candidates greeted Head Coach William R. Morley of the Columbia football team yesteray morning in the university gymnasium, and Manager Abbott predicted that the squad will probably be doubled by the end of the week. Capt. Weekes welcomed the men and Morley addressed them on their work for the season. He said: "The football year at Columbia opens under more favorable auspices than I have ever known before. We have a more reasonable schedule than last year, and are not confronted early in the season, before we have had time to get together with a big game. We have a fair percentage of old men back and the number of new men is unusually promising. There are also a number veterans from former Columbia teams to help us with the coaching. We want you men to maintain strict training and go into the play with all your grit and determination We- have always been bothered with men who have conditions in their studies and we want to avoid that this year."

In the afternoon the first practice was held on the new South Field gridiron instead of at Manhattan Field, as originally intended. The new men to report were a promising were Capt. Weekes, Brinckerhoff, J. Fisher, Sladkus, Duden, Schramm and Fasoli. Smith, B. Boyesen and Alsberg were on the side lines. Among the new men were Thorpe, a 200pounder, and Currier, a good punter from the De La Salle School, Stiefel from Columbia Grammar School, Guver, Walz, a former Cornell runner: E. Dollin, a law school man, who stands 8 feet 4 inches in his stockings and weighs 195 pounds: Tintner and Albertson. Goodman, who did so wen as succeed, tute quarter back in 1991, was on the field, but announced that his law school work but announced that his law school work.

Morley put the men through the tactics in good style. There were passing, falling on the ball, catching punts, kicking and an attempt at line formation. Duden. Stiefel and Dollin were the men tried at centre and guard. Morley coached Walz, Guyer and Fisher in the elements of quarter back playand put Weekes, Currier, Schramm, Tintner, and for a time Fisher, in the back field. All of these men were tried at punting and Currier proved a surprise in the ground he covered On a number of trials he sent the ball as far as the experienced Weekes. Columbia needs a full back, so that Weekes can stay at left half back. The first and tentative for the 'Varsity vesterday was as follows left guard. Stiefel; centre. Duden; right guard Dollin; right tackle, Thorpe; right end Guyer; quarter back, Walz; left half back Weekes; right half back, Fisher; full back

After the practice the men took a run on the new South Field track for their wind Johnny Wolff, end on the 1900 team, assisted Morley in coaching.

PRINCETON, Sept. 22.—The Tigers' squad this afternoon was augmented to about seventy. The latest arrivals were mostly substitutes on last year's eleven, who up to this time have been busy studying for the conditional examinations. There were, however, two promising new men, Veterlein, from the Penn Charter School, and Carrothers, from the Shadyside Academy. The former is a full back who made aftner eputation at his preparatory school both as a line plunger and as a punter and drop kicker. He weighs 170 pounds.

He had a little practice this afternoon and sent the pigskin sailing down the field in a manner that pleased the coacher. Carrothers, the other new player, is a tackle weighing 185 pounds. He was tried in the scrimmage work and broke through in fine style.

The practice to-day was the nearest approach the men have had to real foothball. The squad was separated into three divisions. Coach Hutchinson and Gresham Poe, last year's quarter back, had charge of the back field men. Marshall Mills, the old guard, took the candidates for the centre positions, and Capt. Pell of last year's team had the tackles and ends. The line men did some scrimmage work, but no tackling was allowed. Short, substitute centre last season, and. Barney, the 240-pound Andover man who is trying for the position, had a strenuous time of it, with the odds slightly favoring the old man. Dutcher, the other big Andover line man, was at guard and he showed up well against Bradley, a substitute, although he seemed to be a trifle slow in charging. After the practice on the gridiron each player had three trials at the tackling dummy, and they actually knocked the stuffing out of the old canvas man with the conspicuous blue "Y" on his breast. In the practice Howard Henry, the end, had his finger broken and will be out of the game for a few days as a result of the injury.

of the game for a lew days as a result of the injury.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 22.—Interest to-day at the Yale Field centred in the work with the dummy which was used for the first time. From three different distances the linemen and backs were sent at the machine and the results showed that many of the men have lots to learn in the art of bringing down a runner. The machine used is of the latest type with a dummy that drops instantly when the weight of the tackler is brought to bear on it.

the weight of the tackler is brought to bear on it.

For the first time the full line was set at breaking through. The back field was not employed at the work, but the ends were sent into active play which was snappy and continued longer than heretofore. Practice was harder than on any day last week and will be followed up with a scrimmage between the 'Varsity and college teams either tomorrow or Wednesday. Dr. A. H. Sharpe has left town and consequently Field Cach Swan and Capt. Chadwick had entire charge to-day. The new men out to-day were Hazen, Knox, Drummond, Batcheldor, Bronson, Curtiss, Owsley and Jack Ward.

son, Curtiss, Owsley and Jack Ward.

Providence, Sept. 22.—The line-up of Brown's Varsity team to-day was considerably different from that of last Saturday. Cobb, last year's guard, was out for the first time and took the place of Philbrick, the new freshman guard. Schurin also of last year's team, was put in at left end, and Scudder was put in as quarter in place of Pattee. The work to-day consisted in about twenty minutes' of fast association football to give the players better wind, some hard running down under the ball and about a half hour of good, snappy signal practice. There were enough men out for three teams, but no tackling and no scrimmages took place.

The team this year will be lighter than that of last year, the average weight being 185 pounds. Roberts is the heaviest man so far and he weighs 265 pounds. Hamilton, the new full back, did some good work to-day in place kicking. He works very well behind the line. Colter, the crack centre, one of the heaviest and strongest men on the team, was notified to-day that he was debarred from playing because of his deficiencies in his studies. If he cannot play, the team will suffer greatly, as he is one of the best men in the line.

ITHACA, Sept. 22—To-day in Cornell's footbull camp, Hunt, Warner's running mate in the guard position, dislocated his shoulder and will be out of the game for the next fortight. Purcell reported at the field to assist in the coaching, but has been prohibited by his parents from playing this season. Slace, a 240-pound lad from the St. Paul School, made his debut on the field, and Dr. Beaman ordered Kilburn off the field because of some malady of the heart from which he is suffering.

Over a hundred candidates were on the field when the 'Varsity and the scrubs lined up this afternoon. Thirty were members of the freshman class who were making their initial appearance in Cornell togs. Most were light men who will be of little use to Coach Reed and his assistants. The scrimage lasted for ten minutes during which time the scrubs retained possession of the ball and with mass formations tore through the 'Varsity line bringing the leather to the five-yard line when Reed called time.

The New Yorks were the Bostons' equals for six innings yesterday, then struck a tailend gait and fell by the wayside. The Brookyns by a ninth-inning spurt defeated the Philadelphias.

Luther Taylor pitched valiantly yesterday against the Bostons, but the New Yorks, after holding the visitors level for six innings, broke loose with one of their error making spells and the Bostons rolled up runs rapidly toward the end. Tenney of the Bostons was put out of the game for kicking, and Fittinger, the Boston pitcher, who was in the game only as a coacher, was ordered off the field for his unruly talk to Umpire Latham.
